

Contractors combine standard charging technologies with project specific solutions

Contractors experience both economic and grid connection barriers

Economical barriers

Grid connection barriers

There is a mismatch today between time from contract signed to project start and the grid connection application process.

